Although we've just bid adieu to our June graduates, life does go on, and Summer Orientation for our undergraduates will be held on June 16, beginning at 8:45 a.m. The orientation will include a welcome by SGA President Jay Wright and President Richard S. Wallace, a walking tour of campus, and advising and group discussion sessions. For more information or to obtain a schedule, contact Student Activities (ext. 1609) or Student Affairs (ext. 1411).

The cost is $50, and the registration deadline is June 15. For more information, contact Michael Brown, Director of Bands at ext. 1453.

HEOPA CORNER

Why would a seemingly sane man turn down $100? That's the question members of the Higher Education Office Personnel Association asked as the men in the white coats came to take Joe Mele (Vice President for Business & Finance) off to a nice, padded cell (Ask yourself: Did ANYONE see the man last week?). When Mr. Mele won the $100 gift certificate to the AC Bookstore in the recent HEOPA raffle, he graciously donated the money back to the organization! Each member extends her thanks to Mr. Mele as HEOPA enters a new year with a head start!

Lynn Thibodeau, a sophomore music major, has been awarded the 1987-88 Kelley Denise Drake Memorial Music Scholarship of $700. She is active in choral and opera theatre productions at AC, and is a member of the AC Choir and Chamber Choir, and a vocalist with the AC Jazz Ensemble.

The AC Baptist Student Union recently held their Spring Banquet, which included an awards ceremony. Anna Howard was named Outstanding BSU member for '86-'87. She served as the internationals co-ordinator and was an active participant in the executive council. The executive council for '87-'88 was announced. Newly elected and appointed officers are: Cathy Applewhite (President), Steve Macklen (Vice-President), Sid Brown (Impact Team Leader), Aaron Eshee (Summer Missions), Patty Anderson (Public Relations), Pendella Schmidt (Outreach and Internationals), and Denny Mack (Newsletter Editor).

AC welcomes two new employees to its ranks! They are JOY LAFSER (Personnel) and ERNEST TOLBERT (Physical Plant). We hope you will enjoy your new jobs at AC!

We are all saddened by the recent death of Nancy Bryant, formerly of the Biology Department. The funeral was held June 4 in North Carolina. Nancy died after a long bout with cancer; in her memory, the AC Higher Office Personnel Association donated $25 to the AC Scholarship Fund. She will be sorely missed by all her friends and co-workers at AC.

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the various methods which have been proposed for the determination of the rate of reaction between a gas and a solid. It is found that the most reliable method is that of measuring the change in weight of the solid as a function of time. This method is applicable to all cases, but it is only in the case of a reaction which is first order with respect to the gas that it can be used to determine the rate constant. In the case of a reaction which is second order with respect to the gas, the rate constant can be determined by measuring the change in weight of the solid as a function of time, and then plotting the reciprocal of the weight of the solid against time. The slope of this plot is equal to the rate constant.

SUMMER COMMENCEMENT HERALDS A FIRST FOR AC!

There's a first time for everything--and at this year's summer commencement, AC will be awarding its very first cooperative doctorate degree to June Kelley. She is the first student to earn the Doctorate of Philosophy in Educational Leadership degree through AC's partnership with Georgia State University. Jack B. Patrick, President of Augusta Area Technical Institute, will deliver the commencement address to approximately 135 graduates at 8 p.m. on August 21 in the Maxwell Performing Arts Theatre. Congratulations, graduates!

OPEN HOUSE SPONSORED BY ADMISSIONS

The Office of Admissions will host an open house for all areas of campus on August 24, from 12-3 p.m., at their new headquarters, the Benet House (formerly the President's Home). Don Smith and his staff invite everyone to stop by for refreshments and to view all the changes that have been made. They are all very proud of their new home--and hope you will be too!

WELCOME, DR. DUNIFON!

The AC community extends a warm welcome to one of its newest members, William S. Dunifon. Dunifon is the new Vice President for Academic Affairs, and comes to us from Illinois State University. We wish him a long and successful tenure here, and hope that he, his wife Margaret, and their daughters Rachel Elizabeth and Laura Ann are enjoying all the Southern hospitality Augusta has to offer!

HAVE MERCY! GOSPEL MUSIC COMES TO AC!

You say nobody knows the trouble you've seen? Then your spirits will be lifted by the Gospel Music Program, sponsored by the AC Choir on August 23 at 5:30 p.m. in the Maxwell Performing Arts Theatre. The program will feature the United Voices of Inspiration, the Augusta Chapter of the James Cleveland Workshop of America, and a new group, the Voices En Mass, which is a city-wide choir. Carlton Howard will host the free program.

AC CENTER FOR THE CREATIVE ARTS ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS

The AC Center for the Creative Arts is now accepting applications for music instruction for the fall term. Private lessons are available in voice, piano, organ, guitar, and all string and woodwind instruments. Class instruction in piano, guitar, orchestra and beginning band will also be offered. For more information on the classes, which begin the week of September 21, contact Fine Arts at ext. 1453.

Martha Farmer has announced four new area directors within the School of Business Administration for the 1987-88 year. They are: Russ Holloman, Director of Graduate Studies and Assistant to the Dean; Richard Bramblett, Director of Management, Marketing and Management Information Systems; Don Law, Director of Accounting, Finance and Economics; and Bill Monge, Director of Community Services.

Alan Cooke, who has served as Operations Manager for the WACG radio station since 1979, has been named Station Manager for WACG. The change reflects the merger between AC's public radio station and Peach State Public Radio. His appointment is consistent with Peach State Public Radio's policy to reflect the listening area it serves. "We're most fortunate," said Phil Goodman, director of Peach State Public Radio, "to have Alan Cooke join our staff. His expertise and enthusiasm can only be a positive factor in the growth of Peach State Public Radio in Georgia."

IT'S A BOY!

Congratulations to the newest parents on the AC campus, Alan and Melanie Sharp! Melanie gave birth to a bouncing baby boy, Casey Alan Sharp, on August 15 at University Hospital. Casey weighed 6 lbs., 14 oz., and mother, father, and son are all doing fine.

SUMMER COMMENCEMENT HERALDS A FIRST FOR AC!

There's a first time for everything--and at this year's summer commencement, AC will be awarding its very first cooperative doctorate degree to June Kelley. She is the first student to earn the Doctorate of Philosophy in Educational Leadership degree through AC's partnership with Georgia State University. Jack B. Patrick, President of Augusta Area Technical Institute, will deliver the commencement address to approximately 135 graduates at 8 p.m. on August 21 in the Maxwell Performing Arts Theatre. Congratulations, graduates!

OPEN HOUSE SPONSORED BY ADMISSIONS

The Office of Admissions will host an open house for all areas of campus on August 24, from 12-3 p.m., at their new headquarters, the Benet House (formerly the President's Home). Don Smith and his staff invite everyone to stop by for refreshments and to view all the changes that have been made. They are all very proud of their new home--and hope you will be too!

WELCOME, DR. DUNIFON!

The AC community extends a warm welcome to one of its newest members, William S. Dunifon. Dunifon is the new Vice President for Academic Affairs, and comes to us from Illinois State University. We wish him a long and successful tenure here, and hope that he, his wife Margaret, and their daughters Rachel Elizabeth and Laura Ann are enjoying all the Southern hospitality Augusta has to offer!

HAVE MERCY! GOSPEL MUSIC COMES TO AC!

You say nobody knows the trouble you've seen? Then your spirits will be lifted by the Gospel Music Program, sponsored by the AC Choir on August 23 at 5:30 p.m. in the Maxwell Performing Arts Theatre. AC CENTER FOR THE CREATIVE ARTS ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS

The AC Center for the Creative Arts is now accepting applications for music instruction for the fall term. Private lessons are available in voice, piano, organ, guitar, and all string and woodwind instruments. Class instruction in piano, guitar, orchestra and beginning band will also be offered. AC CAMPUS POOLS EFFORTS TO MAKE COMMERCIAL A SUCCESS!

REESE LIBRARY
AUG 15 1987

SEP 03 1987

The Office of Public Relations owes a debt of gratitude to all the people who gave so generously of their time and talents on Monday, August 24, when everyone came together for the filming of AC's fall quarter TV commercial. Ken Jones and his staff provided easy access to campus buildings at odd hours. Steven Proctor and Tim Loungeway of Fine Arts Activities helped with the technical aspect of the filming. The "stars" (who had speaking parts) were Amanda Buckner, Sheila Epps, Larry Marshall and Gary Saul--all students and graduates who gave their entire day to appear in the commercial. Other people who appeared as extras were Steven Stumps, Sandra Reese, Margaret Flavin, Gregory Stenger, Myra Wilkes, Gary Stunford, Veronica Maguire, John Norcross, Eleanor Willingham, Brenda Bruce, Melissa Kirby, Luanne Hales, Gina Grubbs, and Edna Williams. Sam Clegg (Military Science) also recruited Murray Hadden and Nate McCants to help out, and Alan Sharp (Physical Education) brought AC basketball player Vince Jackson in from Washington, Ga., to dunk a basketball in one scene. Many members of the Delta Chi Fraternity also showed up to help out. AC staff members were especially helpful--Barry Robinson provided a much-needed lunch; Beth Brigdon, Guy Bass, Marcia Webb, and Beverly Penaranda (along with their work-study students) brought the computer lab to life; and Russ Holloman (School of Business) literally gave the shirt off his back when a main character's white shirt proved too stark to photograph. Teresa Schuler (Chemistry & Physics) and John Egekeze took the time and trouble to simulate a realistic chemistry experiment; thanks also go to Kathy Thompson for her efforts to recruit AC students, and to Jim Garvey who announced the need for students as they lined up for commencement. The commercial was a great success and is currently in the Media Services Center for anyone who wishes to see it. (Thanks, too, to Jerry Hagerty, for making it available to interested persons on campus!)

LAUDERDALE TOURNAMENT IS COMING UP

No "putts" about it--this tournament means fun "fore" everyone! The third annual Southeastern Lauderdale Championship, sponsored by the AC Athletic Association and Foundation, will be held September 14 at Westlake Country Club. Sixty-six teams of four will compete for fun and thousands of dollars in terrific prizes! It's sure to be a great way to wind up summer--with plenty of fun that also benefits AC.

A note: William S. Dunifon (Vice President for Academic Affairs) is now in his new office in Payne Hall, which was formerly the Registrar's Office. The phone # is ext. 1422.

Soon we'll be hearing the pitter-patter of little feet as students once again return to AC for fall quarter classes. Registration and orientation for new freshmen and transfer students will take place on September 10 at 9 a.m. at the Maxwell Performing Arts Theatre; all other students will have their orientation and registration sessions on September 14, with classes beginning September 16. Let's prepare to welcome back our faculty and students from what we hope was a great summer rest.

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS HAS NEW EXECUTIVE-IN-RESIDENCE

Speaking of fall quarter classes--The School of Business Administration will be welcoming a new Executive-in-Residence this year. Abram Serotta, a partner in Serotta, Maddocks, and DeVanny accounting firm, will teach "Research in Taxation" from 5:30-7:40 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays, beginning September 17. The course will provide students with a basic knowledge of tax research, including individual, corporate and partnership topics. The program was started by the School of Business Administration to enable students to learn first-hand from some of Augusta's leading business figures.

OPEN HOUSE COMING TO TWO AREAS OF AC

Two areas of campus will be sponsoring Open House activities in September. On September 9, Mary Bailey and her staff at the Bookstore will hold Open House from 11 a.m.-2 p.m. A lot has changed in the Bookstore, so drop by to check out the new merchandise--and the new faces! Also, on September 24, Don Smith and his staff will host an Open House in their new quarters in the Benet House. Faculty and staff members are invited to stop by from 12-3 p.m. to enjoy refreshments and see all the changes that have been made.

CE OFFERS COURSE TO HELP FARM WORKERS

A free evening course for displaced Georgia farmers and farm workers who wish to explore other career possibilities and their own personal potential will be offered by AC from October 1 through November 12 on Mondays and Thursdays. Registration and the program, entitled "Where Do You Go From Here?" will be held at the Burke County Office Park, Waynesboro, in the County Extension Agent's Office. For more information, contact the Office of Continuing Education.

The Fine Arts Center Lobby Gallery will house an art exhibit featuring the works of Nathan Bindler and Kim Chalmers from September 12 through October 9. Bindler's works will include wood and marble carvings, and Chalmers will have paintings on display. A reception honoring the artists will be held on September 12 from 7:30-9:30 p.m. in the Fine Arts Center.

Three workshops designed for owners of small businesses will be held in September by the AC Small Business Development Center. "Basic Bookkeeping Workshop" will be offered Sept. 14-23, "Restaurant Management" on September 22, and "Preparing a Business Loan Proposal" on September 24. For information and registration, contact the SBDC at ext. 1790.

September events--New Faculty Orientation, Towers Room, CAC, 2:30 p.m., 9/8; Fall Faculty Meeting, Butler Hall Lecture Room, 10 a.m., 9/9; Meeting with Student Leaders, Council of Deans, Administrative Council and Department Chairpersons, Towers Room, CAC, 1-3:30 p.m., Towers Room, CAC, and Annual Fish Fry, 9/11; 1987 Faculty and Staff Tennis and Golf Competitions, noon, 9/18.

Richard S. Wallace will give a slide presentation on AC at the Chamber of Commerce "Coffee Call" on September 9 at 8 a.m. in the Civic Center. The program will be sponsored by AC.

The Office of Continuing Education will kick off a new year this fall with a variety of new courses to fit every taste and interest. Course topics range from professional development to cooking. For more information or to receive a brochure, contact the Continuing Education office, ext. 1636.

AC's Health Central members have done it again! For a second consecutive quarter, they have won the Wellness Warriors trophy, proving that no other company in their category can out-run, out-aerobic, or out-sweat them! There seems to be no stopping them as they follow in the footsteps of their fearless leader (Dr. Wallace) down the path to health and fitness. The trophy is on display in the Public Relations Office--congratulations, Warriors, and keep up the good work!

Teresa Schuler (Chemistry & Physics) and John Egekeze took the time and trouble to simulate a realistic chemistry experiment; thanks also go to Kathy Thompson for her efforts to recruit AC students, and to Jim Garvey who announced the need for students as they lined up for commencement. The commercial was a great success and is currently in the Media Services Center for anyone who wishes to see it. (Thanks, too, to Jerry Hagerty, for making it available to interested persons on campus!)

FILM SERIES KICKS OFF A NEW SEASON!

The AC Film Series will kick off a new season this fall, starting on September 17 with My Beautiful Laundrette. This low-budget portrait of a Pakistani laundrette in South London is about a bleached-out ex-skin head who teams up with the upwardly mobile son of Pakistani immigrants. The two turn cultural, racial, and sexual stereotypes upside down in this vividly social comedy. On September 24, El Amor Brujo (Love the Magician) will be shown. In this film, breathtaking visuals and stunning choreography tell the story of gypsy lovers who resort to sorcery to eliminate the ghostly presence of the woman's dead husband. Both films will be shown at 6 & 8:15 p.m. in the Butler Hall Lecture Room. Admission is $2 regular, $1 special (public school students, active AC alumni, and senior citizens), and free with a valid AC I.D.

FREE TRIP IS AVAILABLE TO AC STUDENTS, FACULTY AND STAFF!

The Department of Military Science is offering a free trip for AC students, faculty and staff members to Redstone Arsenal in Huntsville, Alabama, and to the Chicamauga National Military Park at Ft. CULLUM LECTURE SERIES BRINGS THE OUTBACK TO AC!

Australia has been selected as the theme country for the 1988 Cullum Lecture Series at AC. The annual series will begin Tuesday, January 26, with an Australia Day Festival, to be held in the College Activity Center. It will include drama skits, readings, information booths, a special Australian menu in the cafeteria, and a boomerang contest or demonstration. The Reese Library will have a display of books about the country, and the Bookstore will have toy koala bears and items relating to the country. The remainder of the program, "Australia: Our Friend Down Under," will continue through April and May.

AC MATH DEPT. MAKES DUPONT TAKE NOTICE!

It all adds up--the Department of Math and Computer Science does Augusta College proud! AC has been selected as one of the 30 colleges nationwide from which the E. I. DuPont De Nemours Co. recruits computer science majors. Lewis E. Shumaker, College Relations Supervisor for the company, said that DuPont made an extensive survey to determine where to concentrate its recruiting efforts to provide the very best prospects. They now recruit on only 30 campuses in the U.S., all major research institutions with the exception of two small colleges--one of which is AC. Last year, DuPont hired 90 computer science majors, six of whom were AC graduates.

HOLIDAY HAPPENINGS

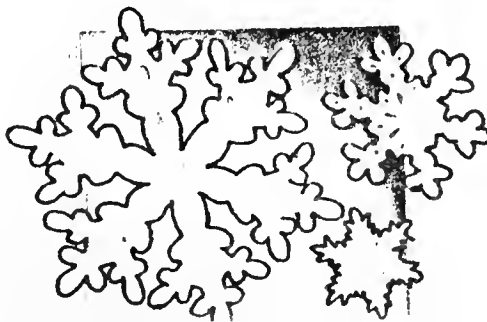

William S. Dunifon, vice president for academic affairs, will host an Eggnog Party December 7 from 3-4:30 p.m. in Payne Hall. Everyone is invited to drop by and sample the traditional holiday drink. Dr. Dunifon uses a special old-world recipe that contains a secret ingredient--and it may take several servings before we can guess what it is! On December 11, the annual AC Holiday Lunch will be held at noon in the cafeteria. Meats and tea will be provided, and everyone is asked to bring a covered dish.

ALUMNI CHRISTMAS PARTY IS COMING UP

The annual Alumni Association Christmas Party will be held Saturday, December 19, from 7:30-11:30 p.m. Everyone is invited to celebrate in the Maxwell Alumni House.

"GLAMOUR"OUS COLLEGE WOMEN SOUGHT BY MAGAZINE

AC students are invited to participate in Glamour Magazine's 1988 Top Ten College Women Competition. A panel of Glamour editors will select the winners on the basis of their solid records of achievement in academic studies and/or in extracurricular activities. The winners will receive an all-expenses-paid trip to New York City and will participate in meetings with professionals in their area of interest. Contact Public Relations to obtain an entry form. The deadline for submitting an application to Glamour is December 15, 1987.
